

ILLINOIS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Join our team!

The Illinois Symphony Orchestra is seeking talented and energetic string instructors for the 2025-2026 year.

- Be part of a rapidly growing string program, which has quadrupled in two years, now encompassing 20 classes and over 200 students.
- Take advantage of an extremely high-demand market to develop a large private studio.
- Potential additional teaching opportunities with the University of Illinois-Springfield String Academy, and potential performing opportunities with the Illinois Symphony Orchestra.

To be considered, please submit a cover letter, current resume, and audio/video sample of your playing to ISO Education and Youth Orchestras Program Manager at jmitra@ilsymphony.org.

For more information, go to ilsymphony.org/employment or scan the QR code.

