

Join the Summer Staff at Marlboro Music

Marlboro Music is renowned for its commitment to the in-depth exploration of chamber music, bringing together 80 exceptional musicians and staff in the scenic beauty of southern Vermont each summer. We're currently seeking dedicated team members for a variety of positions, including:

- Stage Crew/Operations: Handle technical operations, including stage setups, transportation, and general maintenance. Knowledge of chamber music is a plus.
- Festival Staff/Housekeeping: Maintain festival facilities and assist with event logistics.
- Reception/Administrative Assistant: Serve as a key point of contact, with strong organizational and communication skills.
- Assistant Recording Engineer: Assist with recording sessions and manage festival recordings.
- Lifeguard: Supervise the festival's private lake beach and assist with various festival duties.
- Coffee Shop Staff: Manage the campus Coffee Shop, creating a welcoming environment and assisting with social events.

Location: Marlboro Music Festival, Southern Vermont

Duration: June 12 – August 26, 2025

Compensation: Competitive salary, full room and board (3 meals per day at the dining hall), and a private single room accommodation on campus. You'll also enjoy live music and the scenic beauty of Vermont as part of your perks.

Ideal Candidates: Available from June 12 – August 26, 2025, enthusiastic about creating a new experience, and passionate about chamber music and the festival environment. Flexible, team-oriented individuals will thrive in these roles.
