

OPERA NORTH

A group of people in formal attire are on a stage at night. In the foreground, a man in a blue suit and a woman in a yellow floral dress are looking up. Behind them, other people in formal wear are visible. To the right, a man is playing a cello. The background is dark with some foliage and a few balloons hanging from the ceiling.

Our Purpose

Opera North's purpose is to create extraordinary experiences every day, using music and opera to entertain, engage, challenge and inspire.

Our People

Working at Opera North you will be part of a company and group of people committed to fulfilling this purpose. Whatever role you take we will provide you with an induction plan that introduces you to your job and the team you'll be working in, as well as giving you the opportunity to meet colleagues across the company. Our success in delivering against our purpose will be built on the commitment, skills, diversity and well-being of the people who work at Opera North, and we will invest in training to develop our people both professionally and personally, because we believe this strengthens not only our company, but also the wider creative sector.

Our communities and audiences are part of us, and we are part of them.

Our award-winning work tours to theatre stages and concert halls throughout the North and beyond.

Who We Are

Based in Leeds, rooted in the North of England and international in outlook, our award-winning work tours to theatre stages and concert halls throughout the North and beyond, including to London and major international festivals. Alongside touring opera, in Leeds we curate an eclectic artistic programme of gigs, concerts, spoken word and film in the newly transformed venue the Howard Assembly Room. We aim to make work that is bold, innovative and ambitious, always looking for new ways to share and create with audiences.

Music for Everyone

Opera North believes opera and music is for everyone, and champions diversity in artists, repertoire and audiences. Through our Learning & Engagement and team, the Company connects with communities and inspires each generation, aiming to enhance the health and well-being of people in the cities, towns and villages where we work through arts participation and performance. In recognition of our work with refugee groups, Opera North holds the status of Theatre of Sanctuary.

A New Home

In 2021 we moved into our new home, the Howard Opera Centre. It is a world class rehearsal facility for our orchestra, chorus and all the artists we work with, sharing the same building as our new education studio where everyone is welcome to learn about and make music. We have also created a modern flexible working environment for our staff and given our venue, the Howard Assembly Room, a new lease of life with a dedicated entrance and public spaces, together with restaurant and bar in the heart of Leeds.

Leeds as a capital of culture

Leeds is the only city in England outside of London to have a resident full time opera company, ballet and repertoire theatre as part of a diverse, collaborative and thriving cultural scene. That rich offer has been complemented by a growing tech sector.

Surrounded by the stunning Yorkshire countryside including the Dales, Moors and North Sea coastline, Leeds is a fantastic place to live and work.

Main Purpose of the Job

The Learning & Engagement Instrumental Tutors deliver a year-round programme of high quality and engaging group instrumental tuition within the Opera North Young Musicians Studio.

Background

Opera North is England's national opera company in the north and one of Europe's leading arts organisations. The Company is committed to producing work of the highest quality that excites, challenges and entertains. Rooted in our northern communities but global in outlook, the Learning & Engagement team at Opera North collaborate with professional artists to deliver opera related participative arts and family performance activity, by, with and for people of all ages to create Extraordinary Experiences in their lives.

In Harmony Opera North is a long term music programme which launched in the spring of 2013 at Windmill Primary School; it now takes place at six primary schools and one secondary school in Leeds and Halifax and involves almost 2500 children and young people in full-time education on a weekly basis. The programme seeks to deliver an inclusive programme of music education and performance opportunities to encourage young people from socio-economically disadvantaged backgrounds to engage with the arts and, through doing so, benefit from a range of personal, social and musical outcomes. Supporting the development of a strong sense of community is an important facet of the programme, alongside promoting musical excellence and the opportunity for committed and enthusiastic young people to realise their musical potential.

Young Musicians Studio forms part of the progression activity offered to support children and young people who demonstrate the potential and enthusiasm to develop beyond the first access In Harmony provision. The Saturday Music School meets weekly during term-time. It offers classes in musicianship as well as ensembles and small group instrumental tuition taught by specialist tutors.

DUTIES AND KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- As part of a team of instrumental tutors, plan and deliver instrumental tuition at the Young Musicians Studio; integrating musicianship, instrumental skills and ensemble playing and ensuring good technique is being implemented.
- Ensure monitoring and self-evaluation of teaching and learning methods, to track progress of all participants and develop best practice at an individual level and across the wider team.
- Direct Young Musicians Studio ensembles at rehearsals, workshops and performances where required.
- Offer musical and programme-related support, advice and expertise to children, staff and parents where appropriate.
- Support the Opera North Education team in providing knowledge and practical advice where needed regarding instrument repairs, maintenance and instrument and accessory purchase.
- Attend communication, planning and development meetings with other staff and company representatives as required.

Additional Responsibilities

- Any other duties as may reasonably be required within the level and scope of the post.
- Ensuring the highest standards of professional performance are maintained.
- Supporting and wherever possible promoting and contributing to equality, diversity and inclusion within the organisation.
- Taking reasonable care of your own health and safety and that of any person who may be affected by your acts or omissions, including following Opera North health and safety procedures and co-operating with the organisation on health and safety issues.
- Participating in arrangements for performance review and appraisal.
- Ensuring that professional skills are regularly updated through participation in learning and development activities.
