

Instructions for London Symphony Orchestra Auditions
Principal Flute 2024/5

You must have recorded your first round audition and uploaded it to your account on Musical Chairs by Mon 13 Jan 2025.

Repertoire and Excerpts:

First Round – pre-recorded audition (we will remove video for anonymity)

Please play:

- Dutilleux Sonatine
- Excerpts:
 - Mahler – Symphony No. 9, mvmt 1
 - Mendelssohn – Scherzo from A Midsummer Night’s Dream
 - Ravel – Daphnis and Chloe
 - Strauss – Til Eulenspiegel

Filming conditions

- No piano accompaniment.
- Single camera
- Single shot, preferably full length
- Visibly no editing (auditions found to have been edited may be excluded)
- Everything in one continuous take like a real audition.
- Your audition video can be recorded using a smartphone camera or tablet. You do not need a professional grade camera.
- When recording your audition video, use a space without background noise.
- Position your equipment in front of a plain wall so that the main light source comes from behind the camera and that the image clearly shows your head, shoulders and torso.
- Do not stand too far away from the camera or in front of a window.
- Please do not talk during the audition.
- Do not worry if the results feel a compromise; we understand you are not in a studio with professional recording equipment.

Recommended sound settings

- Very reverberant acoustics to be avoided, whether natural or artificial.
- Microphones should be clear rather than professional quality.
- The Audition Panel understand the circumstances and will judge your qualities as a player rather than the recording.

Which platforms/apps to use?

Please upload your pre-recorded auditions on to your Musical Chairs account.

What happens after the pre-recorded/online audition?

To begin with, the audition panel will hear your short auditions without video, in order to replicate the conditions of screened live auditions. From these, some candidates will be invited for second round live auditions in March 2025 before being offered a trial.
