

Fujairah Philharmonic Orchestra School (FPOS)

UNITED ARAB EMIRATES – AL FUJAIRAH

Job Description: 1 x Viola Teacher

Fujairah Philharmonic Orchestra School (FPOS) is looking for a full-time teacher.

The school is seeking an experienced and qualified teacher to instruct new students. The chosen candidate will contribute to the development of the newly established orchestra and will be responsible for delivering individual lessons and master classes. This position offers a unique opportunity to mentor and train aspiring orchestra players.

The teacher will be responsible for teaching all aspects of orchestra playing to new students and will play an integral role in the future development of our string, woodwind, brass, and percussion ensembles.

We are seeking candidates who possess a strong yet approachable presence, with flexibility, patience, excellent organizational skills, and clear communication. While knowledge of Arabic is not required, the successful candidate will be working with students who have varying levels of English proficiency. Therefore, the ability to adapt to these varying levels and inspire good working habits is essential.

Proficiency in playing the piano or assisting with musical theory instruction would be an advantage, though not a requirement.

Applicants should submit details of their relevant education and experience, along with a maximum of three video links (uploads or YouTube) showcasing rehearsals or performances.

The successful applicant will be invited for a six-month trial period in Al Fujairah, with the start date to be confirmed. Should the trial period be successful for both parties, a renewable contract will be offered. During this trial period, the applicant will also be involved in repertoire planning.

Applications will remain open until the position is filled.
