Michael Stern, Music Director

Position: COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT MANAGER
Department: Artistic Administration
Office: Seasonal, full-time
Location: Breckenridge, CO

The National Repertory Orchestra offers a unique, hands-on experience in orchestral performance and arts administration. Spend your summer in beautiful Breckenridge, CO, gaining real-world skills to launch your arts career.

Description:

The Community Engagement Manager (CE Manager) is the outward facing musical administrator for some of the NRO's most impactful programs. This position works closely with area schools, non-profits, sponsors, and other local businesses to create a series of free and meaningful small-ensemble performances.

The CE Manager reports to the Director of Artistic Administration and works alongside the production team, the Orchestra Manager, the Alumni String Quartet, the Music Librarian, and other festival staff to ensure a high level of artistic excellence in all community programming. The CE Manager will gain exceptional experience in non-profit administration in a modern arts organization.

Why You Will Love the NRO:

The NRO is an inclusive organization dedicated to teamwork and a highly communicative atmosphere. This professional workplace encourages interaction, synergy, positive feedback, and goal-oriented individuals, all working together to enhance the future of classical music and the Arts.

Our vision is to break barriers between education, performance, and community to develop 21st-century musicians!

What You Will Do:

Manage and develop all NRO Community Engagement (CE) programs, including but not limited to:

- Assign and schedule community and promotional ensembles
- Develop chamber ensembles' interactive performance plans
- Manage production needs and timelines for all events
- Distribute and collect musician performance plans and post-concert surveys
- Attend all community engagement events and orchestra concerts
- Manage the chamber music library and catalog
- Manage all instrument petting zoos and maintain instruments
- Assist with CE event set-up and live amplification
- Assist guest conductor with Family Concert planning
- Provide quality customer service; customers defined as all stakeholders
- Supervise the Community Engagement Fellow, who will assist the manager on all above responsibilities
- Remote pre-season work includes familiarization with CE programs and timelines
- Other duties as assigned

Candidate Profile:

- Previous experience in arts administration and/or chamber music experience is required
- Ability to read music and proficiency with Microsoft Office is required
- Applicant must be able to handle confidential situations with an even-tempered and professional approach
- Must work well under pressure, prioritize effectively, and be detail-oriented
- Ability to lift, move or transport up to 40 pounds
- Must be able to supply your own computer
- Valid driver's license required
- Supplying own vehicle preferred
- Above all, must have a positive attitude and be a team player. Sense of humor preferred.

Compensation:

- $300-$450 per week, depending on experience, paid in arrears on the 15th and last day of each month
- FREE employee housing in Breckenridge ($4000 value)
- $85 weekly food stipend

Your Time in Breckenridge:

The position will begin in early June and run through mid-August. Exact dates TBA.

How to Apply:

Prepare a one-page resume along with a cover letter and a list of at least three references complete with their contact information and relationship to you. Send to info@nromusic.org. Please type "Community Engagement Manager" in the subject line.

Applications are accepted until position is filled.

About the National Repertory Orchestra:

The National Repertory Orchestra (NRO) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit dedicated to inspiring the next generation of classical musicians through transformative education and performance. Based in beautiful Breckenridge, Colorado, the NRO's prestigious, tuition-free Summer Music Festival brings together 80 exceptional musicians to perform more repertoire than any other festival of its kind. Under the leadership of Music Director Michael Stern and world-renowned guest conductors, the NRO presents up to 18 concerts and 85 free community events each season.

For over 60 years, the NRO has prepared musicians for successful professional careers, fostering leadership and connection through music. Our alumni now perform in major orchestras and serve as influential voices across the arts.

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion:

The National Repertory Orchestra is engaged in the ongoing work of identifying and dismantling systems of racism, discrimination, and barriers to access and is committed to build more just ones. We are focused on the actions necessary to build greater equity and inclusion, creating an environment where all people involved with the NRO can feel safe, welcomed, included and respected.
