Section Principal Cello
BBC National Orchestra of Wales

In order to apply for this position, Candidates will need to register on Musicalchairs and apply via the 'Apply via musicalchairs' button to complete a short information form. Candidates will then follow the below application and audition process: The deadline to complete the form on Musicalchairs is Sunday 9th February. Previous applicants are free to re-apply for this position.

The BBC National Orchestra of Wales aims to make the appointment process for its orchestral vacancies inclusive, transparent and accessible to players at all stages in their careers. All candidates who meet the minimum application criteria will have the opportunity to play to the panel and will be given a fair hearing according to the process below.

Minimum application criteria: completion of, or near completion of, reputable classical music training (e.g. a music degree or equivalent).

Stage 1: All candidates are invited to complete the online application form on Musical Chairs. This will be anonymously assessed by the BBC NOW Orchestra Management Team. Candidates will then progress to Stage 2, 3 or 4, based on pre-determined criteria. Candidates who evidence on the online application form a significant level of professional orchestral experience will be invited to progress to Stage 3 and candidates who evidence an exceptional level of professional orchestral experience in equivalent positions will be invited to progress to Stage 4. All other candidates will progress to Stage 2.

Stage 2: Candidates who progress to Stage 2 are required to send a short video submission consisting of the Audition Round 1 excerpts – Strauss Don Quixote and Beethoven Prometheus – as detailed in this booklet.. The panel will hear the audio only. Successful candidates will be invited to progress to Stage 3.

Stage 3: Live audition; the requirements of this audition are laid out in this booklet and include an accompanied piece, excerpts, and sight reading. Live auditions will be screened throughout in one round.

Stage 4: Candidates will be invited for a patch of assessed guest work in the orchestra in the relevant position. Candidates then may be invited to perform a live audition to the panel (equivalent to Stage 3) at a mutually convenient time, and, if successful, will progress to Stage 5.

Stage 5: Candidates will be invited for trial dates of work with the orchestra. Candidates will be assessed throughout the trial stage and feedback may be given/requested at any point in the trial. BBC NOW have the ambition that all trials will be completed in a timely manner, whilst ensuring opportunities for relevant candidates to demonstrate their skills across a broad range of repertoire.

Stage 2 and 3 audition repertoire is detailed in the audition booklet which can be downloaded from MusicalChairs.

During the audition process, you may also be required to perform:

- Sight reading. This will be presented to candidates in their warm up room to prepare before their audition.

Assessment criteria

Musicianship (to include musical understanding of works performed, approaches to style, phrasing, and harmony)

Technical accomplishment (to include intonation, rhythmic stability and accuracy, bowing, and clarity of articulation)

Live Audition Dates

These will be communicated via MusicalChairs
