

LESSONS, CHAMBER MUSIC, ORCHESTRA & COMPETITION

Participants study in private lessons with world-renowned faculty several times per week. The ASMI Chamber Orchestra welcomes students of all ages and levels, and participants will also engage in chamber ensembles, coached by faculty—who may also perform alongside the students.

The orchestra will collaborate with principals of the Bologna Philharmonic (<https://www.filarmonicabologna.it>) in sectionals, rehearsals, and a final concert in the Emilia-Romagna region.

Students will have multiple performance opportunities—solo, chamber, and orchestral—both within the institute and in public venues.

This summer, we are proud to present our second competition for instrumentalists and composers. Please visit the website for details.

MASTERCLASSES & SEMINARS

Jascha Heifetz's pupils, Dr. Ayke Agus and Pierre Amoyal, and Nathan Milstein's pupil, Dylana Jenson, will teach Leopold Auer's musical traditions and principles through regular lessons and masterclasses.

Renowned Juilliard faculty and celebrated champion of contemporary music, cellist Fred Sherry, will lead the Contemporary Interpretation Seminar, offering students a unique opportunity to explore, improvise and master the music of our time.

Internet star and breathtaking violin virtuoso, Roman Kim, will return to perform and give masterclasses. Sound innovator and witty arranger, the young violinist and composer is not only a multi-talent but also a quintessential artist of our time.
