

Mark Kosower Cello Master Class June 2 - 7, 2024

Nestled in the foothills of California's coastal mountains, Hidden Valley has been offering learning opportunities for extraordinarily talented musicians for over 60 years. It's a testament to our exceptional teaching faculty and caliber of students that many Hidden Valley alumni have gone on to hold important positions in major orchestras and universities worldwide.

This master class is an immersive intensive. Participants, all advanced players, enjoy valuable opportunities for learning, advancement, and creating relationships within the musical community that can last a lifetime. Students and teaching faculty live on campus during the session and spend meals together.

A modern player with a "signature sound" and distinctive style of playing, Mark Kosower embodies the concept of the complete musician performing as concerto soloist with symphony orchestras, in solo recitals, and as a much sought after chamber musician. He is Principal Cello of the Cleveland Orchestra and a scholar and teacher of cello.

Mr. Kosower has worked with students in lessons and master classes around the world including the New World Symphony fellows, the Shanghai Orchestra Academy, and the Baccarelli Institute in São Paulo. Mark Kosower's previous posts include Conservatory Faculty at the Cleveland Institute of Music from 2010-19, Solo Cellist of the Bamberg Symphony Orchestra in Germany from 2006 - 2010, and Professor of Cello and Chamber Music at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music from 2005 - 2007.
