About Lied Academy

Lied Academy in Žďár nad Sázavou is organized by IPASA (International Performing Arts Support Association), and it is designed for singers and pianists who wish to improve their skills in the field of song repertoire under the guidance of internationally renowned artists. We are pleased to announce that the Gustav Mahler Festival Prize will be awarded following the Final Concert of Participants, and the winners will have the honour of performing a recital at the Mahler Jihlava 2025 Festival. The Lied Academy presents a unique opportunity for young pianists and singers to refine their art of song performances under the expert guidance of internationally acclaimed artists.

Each participant will receive a professional video recording of their performance at the Final Concert of Participants on September 9th.
