

International Conducting Lab

02 -07 Jun, 2025

12 conductors from around the world will be selected to work with internationally acclaimed Maestro Edvard Tchizvhel, Emeritus Music Director of the Greenville Symphony Orchestra (SC) for 6 days (Monday through Saturday) in beautiful Greenville, South Carolina, USA!

Conductors will get over 100 minutes of podium time. Each day in the morning, conductors will have a session conducting two pianists on piano reductions of the afternoon repertoire. In the afternoon, conductors will conduct a professional chamber orchestra. There will also be video review sessions and special conducting topic lectures (score study, interpretation, programming, auditioning, competitions, etc.) in the evening.

One conductor will receive an honorable mention based on their work/progress during the week and all conductors will conduct a piece on the final concert.

REPERTOIRE:

GRIEG Holberg Suite (movements 1,2,3, & 4 only)

MOZART Serenade no. 12 (all movements)

STRAVINSKY Octet (movement 1 only)

BEETHOVEN Symphony no. 2 (all movements)

BEETHOVEN Symphony no. 5 (all movements)

NO APPLICATION FEE

ALL AGES WELCOME TO APPLY

COURSE FEE: $2100 USD

Places available until filled so apply today!!!

Contact Email: InternationalConductingLab@gmail.com