

Athens 7th International Conducting Masterclass and Competition

February 2 - 9, 2025

with the Athens Philharmonia Orchestra and Maestro Michalis Economou

Venue:

Athens Philharmonia Orchestra Amphitheatre (Alimos, Athens/Greece)

Repertoire of the course:

J. Brahms: Symphony no. 1 in C minor, op. 68

J. Brahms: Symphony no. 2 in D major, op. 73

Tuition Fees:

Active participants: € 1500

Passive participants: Free (selected Greek conductors only)

Applications deadline: December 26, 2024

(Early applications will be prioritized)

About the course:

Only 14 participants will be accepted as active members. Each one of them will get up to 90 minutes podium time with the orchestra and 50 minutes with two pianos. All active participants will conduct in one of the final concerts. One prize winner will be selected by the orchestra members to be invited to conduct a concert with the Athens Philharmonia Orchestra during the next season. Videotaping will be allowed for all sessions including the final concert. Additionally, the APHO will provide professional video clips and photos of all sessions to all participants. The selected participants will be announced by January 3, 2025.

Applications:

Interested applicants should send an email with their full name, email address, nationality, date of birth, resume, and conducting link(s) to the following address: aphomasterclass@gmail.com

