available for the whole contest period. Latecomers, unless proven reasons of force majeure, will be excluded from the Competition. Rehearsals with the accompanying teachers will take place on the days of the Competition; admission results, dates and times will be communicated after 3rd November by the Secretariat of the Competition.

Participants implicitly accept the rules and regulations.

THE AUDITIONS

A first selection will be made at the discretion of the jury of the competition on the basis of the recordings submitted at the time of the application.

Preliminary Round (closed to the audience):

Admitted participants must bring 4 copies of the music sheet for both the preliminary and final rounds. Once admitted, the participants must perform a preliminary audition, consisting of one piece from each of the following categories (four pieces in total) from the specified repertoire:

- A solo piece by Claudio Monteverdi, Francesco Cavalli, Francesco Provenzale, Henry Purcell, Giovanni Legrenzi, Alessandro Stradella, Luigi Rossi, Jean-Baptiste Lully;
- A piece from a Mass, Oratorio, Passion, or sacred Cantata by Johann Sebastian Bach;
- A recitative and aria from an opera or oratorio by Giovanni Battista Bassani, Antonio Vivaldi, Tommaso Albinoni, Jean-Philippe Rameau, Georg Friedrich Händel, Baldassarre Galuppi, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart;
- A solo piece from the opera repertoire of the Neapolitan school of the 17th and 18th centuries:
 Alessandro Scarlatti, Leonardo Leo, Leonardo Vinci, Johann Adolf Hasse, Nicola Porpora, Nicola Piccinni, Niccolò Jommelli, Domenico Cimarosa, Giovanni Paisiello.

Performances must be from memory; the use of music sheet is permitted for Oratorio compositions.

Applicants must attach to their application the PDFs of the music sheet for the preliminary and final rounds with the music program and they must present 4 copies to the jury. The program must indicate the accompaniment instrument (piano or harpsichord at 415Hz). If not using the provided accompanist, applicants must specify the details of their personal accompanist.

The program cannot be changed after the application is submitted.

The jury has the authority to interrupt or request a repeat performance. Competitors deemed suitable will advance to the final round.

Final Round (open to the audience):

The number of participants in the final round will be at the jury's discretion. The final round program is free and should include two or three pieces with a maximum duration of 20 minutes. Competitors may choose to repeat pieces from the preliminary round.

THE FINAL CONCERT
