

CALL FOR SCORES 2025 - Quirky Nightclub Chronicles

The Arcis Saxophon Quartett is excited to announce its first ever Call for Scores, inviting composers from around the world to contribute a vibrant, experimental, and entertaining piece to our program Quirky Nightclub Chronicles.

Submission Details

Requirements

- A composition of 5–6 minutes for SATBar saxophone quartet with backing track (electronics).
- Additionally (or alternatively), we can also perform on four Roland Aerophones (MIDI wind controllers), as we do in our opening piece “G-Spot Tornado” by Frank Zappa.
- Backing tracks can include sample-based or electronically produced elements.
- The composition should match the character of our program: upbeat, fun, and experimental.
- Submission Materials:
 1. Transposed score in PDF format.
 2. Backing track in WAV format (if possible, also a MIDI or mockup demo).
 3. A brief CV and full contact details.
- Submission Process:
 - Send all materials via email to callforscores@arcis.de; you may use file hosting services, if file size is more than 8MB
 - Deadline for submissions: April 22, 2025.

What’s in it for you?

- The winning piece will be performed at least 30 times worldwide as part of our Quirky Nightclub Chronicles tour.
- It is highly likely to be professionally recorded and released on our own label.
- The selected composer will receive an honorarium of €300.

Evaluation and Selection

- All submissions will be reviewed by the members of the Arcis Saxophon Quartett:
