ANNOUNCES the

Selections for the second edition of the European Youth Orchestra "Ferruccio Busoni"

Art. 1 – Purpose

The year 2024 marked the first centenary since Ferruccio Busoni's death (Empoli, 1866 – Berlin, 1924), considered one of the greatest pianists in history and a primary figure in the compositional, theoretical, and intellectual field in the transition of aesthetic thought between nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Ferruccio Busoni is also one of the first musicians without geographic boundaries, the first great performer to travel from the United States to Russia, and, above all, a European musician in the most modern sense of the term.

In the wake of Busoni's thoughts, the European Youth Orchestra "Ferruccio Busoni", directed by Maestro Sergio Alapont, was created in 2024 with the ambitious objective of creating a bridge between the academic, training and professional activity worlds. Through intensive internship work and meetings with esteemed professionals and trainers, the orchestra was the protagonist of a concert in Empoli, in the evocative setting of Piazza Farinata degli Uberti, on July 19, 2024.

For this year the European Youth Orchestra "Ferruccio Busoni", directed by Maestro Sergio Alapont, will perform in concert in the Collegiata di S. Andrea in Empoli on July 11, 2025 with the following programme: Die Worte des Erlösers am Kreuze, Hob:XX:1 (Introduzione Maestoso e Adagio) by Joseph Haydn, Suite n. 1 Op. 25 by Ferruccio Busoni, Concerto per flauto e arpa K 299 by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, Sinfonia n. 5 in do minore Op. 67 by Ludwig van Beethoven.
