COMPETITION - 3rd EDITION

REGULATION AND REGISTRATION

COMPOSITION COMPETITION

Luis Bacalov

The ICO Magna Grecia Orchestra, in collaboration with Luis Bacalov Association and under the patronage of the Ministry of Culture, the Regione Puglia, and the Municipality of Taranto, announces the third edition of the "Luis Bacalov" International Composition Competition.

This competition aims to represent a heartfelt and rightful tribute to Maestro Luis Bacalov, one of the most significant figures in contemporary international music in recent decades. As the principal conductor of the ICO Magna Grecia Orchestra from 2005 until his death in 2017, the Italo-Argentine Maestro represented an irreplaceable human and artistic reference.

Inspired by his multifaceted musical production, the International Composition Competition aims to promote and enhance the creativity of composers from all over the world.

Luis
Bacalov

1933 - 2017

Luis Bacalov was born in Argentina to a family of Bulgarian origins. In 1959 he moved to Italy, immediately establishing himself as a brilliant arranger for the most important singers of the time. In 1960 he began composing for film collaborating, among others, with Pier Paolo Pasolini, Damiano Damiani, Ettore Scola, Emidio Greco, Robert Duvall, Francesco Rosi, and Federico Fellini. In 1995 he won the Oscar for Best Music (Original Dramatic Score) for the film Il Postino (The Postman).

He was the lecturer of the Composition of Music for Films course at the Chigiana Musical Academy in Siena and teacher at the Cinecittà ACT MULTIMEDIA Film Academy in Rome.

A pianist of rare refinement, he dealt with some of the most varied of musical genres with naturalness and eclecticism, achieving worldwide fame both among rock enthusiasts and among lovers of classical music. He held the position of Principal Conductor of the ICO Orchestra of Magna Grecia in Taranto for almost 15 years until his death. He performed with the ICO both as a pianist and conductor, performing more than 50 concerts in Italy and abroad.
